New finca with pool for sale in Benissa. If you are looking for quietness and countryside, but still want all the comodities of a new build house, then you have found the right property. This finca is on a almost 12.000m² big plot and the house has 320m² living space. It has sun all day and wonderful views to the Sierra Bernia and Olta. The pool is 15x5m and the surrounding terraces are in progress of being constructed. The house has been build on 2 floors and has like 3 different living areas, ideal for rental or big family. On the ground floor is a huge open plan lounge/diner/kitchen. In front of the lounge is a covered terrace, already prepared for glazing in. Off the lounge is the first accommodation with 2 bedrooms, nice bathroom and wardrobe area. Up a nice wooden stair you find 2 further accommodations. 1 big bedroom with bath and dressing and another big bedroom and bath. In between is another room, now used as office, but could be the 6th bedroom. On each floor is a guest toilet. The house was build with Bio construction: Shielded electric cables, Made with Yton-stones (gas-concrete), K-Value walls 0,36, double glazed security windows. For heating system there is a Wall heating (and cooling) with heat pump (tubing in the walls...
